

FROM: TRIANGULATION, CHAPTER NINETEEN,
PAGES 414-418

DonEl and Violet were in ecstasy and so were Jeanne and Al'Lan. There was so much sexual energy being shared in a mind-link that held four humans and three hundred Mroves in it. DonEl and Violet coupled four times in succession and then DonEl was exhausted.

Violet still wanted more, but now that DonEl was no longer erect, Violet thought, {My baby. Give me a baby.}

And DonEl and Jeanne and Al'Lan and three hundred Mroves moved into Violet's body and brought an egg to life in her ovaries and moved it down into Violet's womb. They watched as the sperm swam into the cervix and headed toward the egg. Everyone in the meld bet on a specific sperm and it was a race of hundreds of sperm to see which one got to the egg first.

The Mroves loved races and contests. And in the mind-link there was a lot of excitement and the race went on.

And as Violet and DonEl watched with mindsight, their excitement brought another erection to DonEl. And as the winner began to penetrate the wall of the egg, DonEl ejaculated into Violet again and Violet had another orgasm at the same time.

All four humans fainted from the ecstasy of it. And the Mroves, who were accustomed to experiencing such ecstasy, basked in the afterglow of a very successful union of the humans.

The Mroves had learned how to go into the heavens with mindsight. They had learned how to use mindsight to stand guard while everyone slept. Now the Mroves knew how to bring a dead egg to life and impregnate it with sperm while using mindsight in the body of a Btrl female. They could do the same thing in the body of a Mrove female, if need be. They were very pleased with themselves.

The Mroves were excited about all this new knowledge they had gained. They were purring with pleasure. It sounded like billions of bees buzzing all at the same time in the same room.

Now that Violet had seen her egg brought to life and impregnated, she asked if it would be a girl or a boy.

DonEl asked, {*Do you really want to know?}

Violet thought, {Yes. I want to know.}

DonEl thought, {It is a girl. She will have red hair and green eyes.}

Violet thought, {*I have green eyes and brown hair. It is very hard to see anything down here. What color are your eyes?}

DonEl thought, {I have green eyes and auburn hair. My mother has red hair. That's where your daughter gets her hair color. From my mother.}

Violet thought, {Thank you for the baby. I wanted to have some purpose for my life. My daughter will give me purpose.}

DonEl thought, {Maybe you will find even more purpose for yourself than motherhood.}

Violet concluded, {I hope so. But there is very little hope for that.}

Now Violet shared with DonEl all the dangers that awaited him and Al'Lan and Jeanne.

The Mroves thought, {Let us follow the tunnels to the city of the Btrl and we will eat all the Btrl that will not cooperate with you.}

DonEl thought, {*What about their weapons?}

Hllmr thought, {That is not a problem. We learned from you how to hold them still with our minds. We can eat them and they will not be able to run away. We can eat them slowly, starting with their feet and hands. We can eat their arms and legs. We can eat them and let them watch until we are ready to eat their hearts and watch them die.}

DonEl, Jeanne, and Al'Lan began to weep.

DonEl thought, {No. No. That is not why we came. We came to save lives not teach you how to take lives in that way.}

Hllmr thought, {We are sorry. It was only a joke. We would not be so cruel. Only Btrl are that cruel.}

The purring laughter that had started as soon as Hllmr told her joke stopped abruptly. The Mroves had no idea that the Mrovanni-Btrl had such little sense of humor.

Hllmr explained, {I meant that with all of us, Mrovanni, we can go with you in mindsight and hold motionless anyone who would harm you. We do not like the cavern. We like to be out in the open air. We do not like the dark of the caves. They are dark and they smell bad. We might use them for shelter, but we would never venture far inside them. We will only stay near the edges of caves.}

Fortunately Violet did not understand the mental conversation between DonEl and the Mroves.
